 Donation Camp.

EVENT: 12th February 2024

PLACE OF THE EVENT: YCCE Campus, Nagpur, Maharashtra.

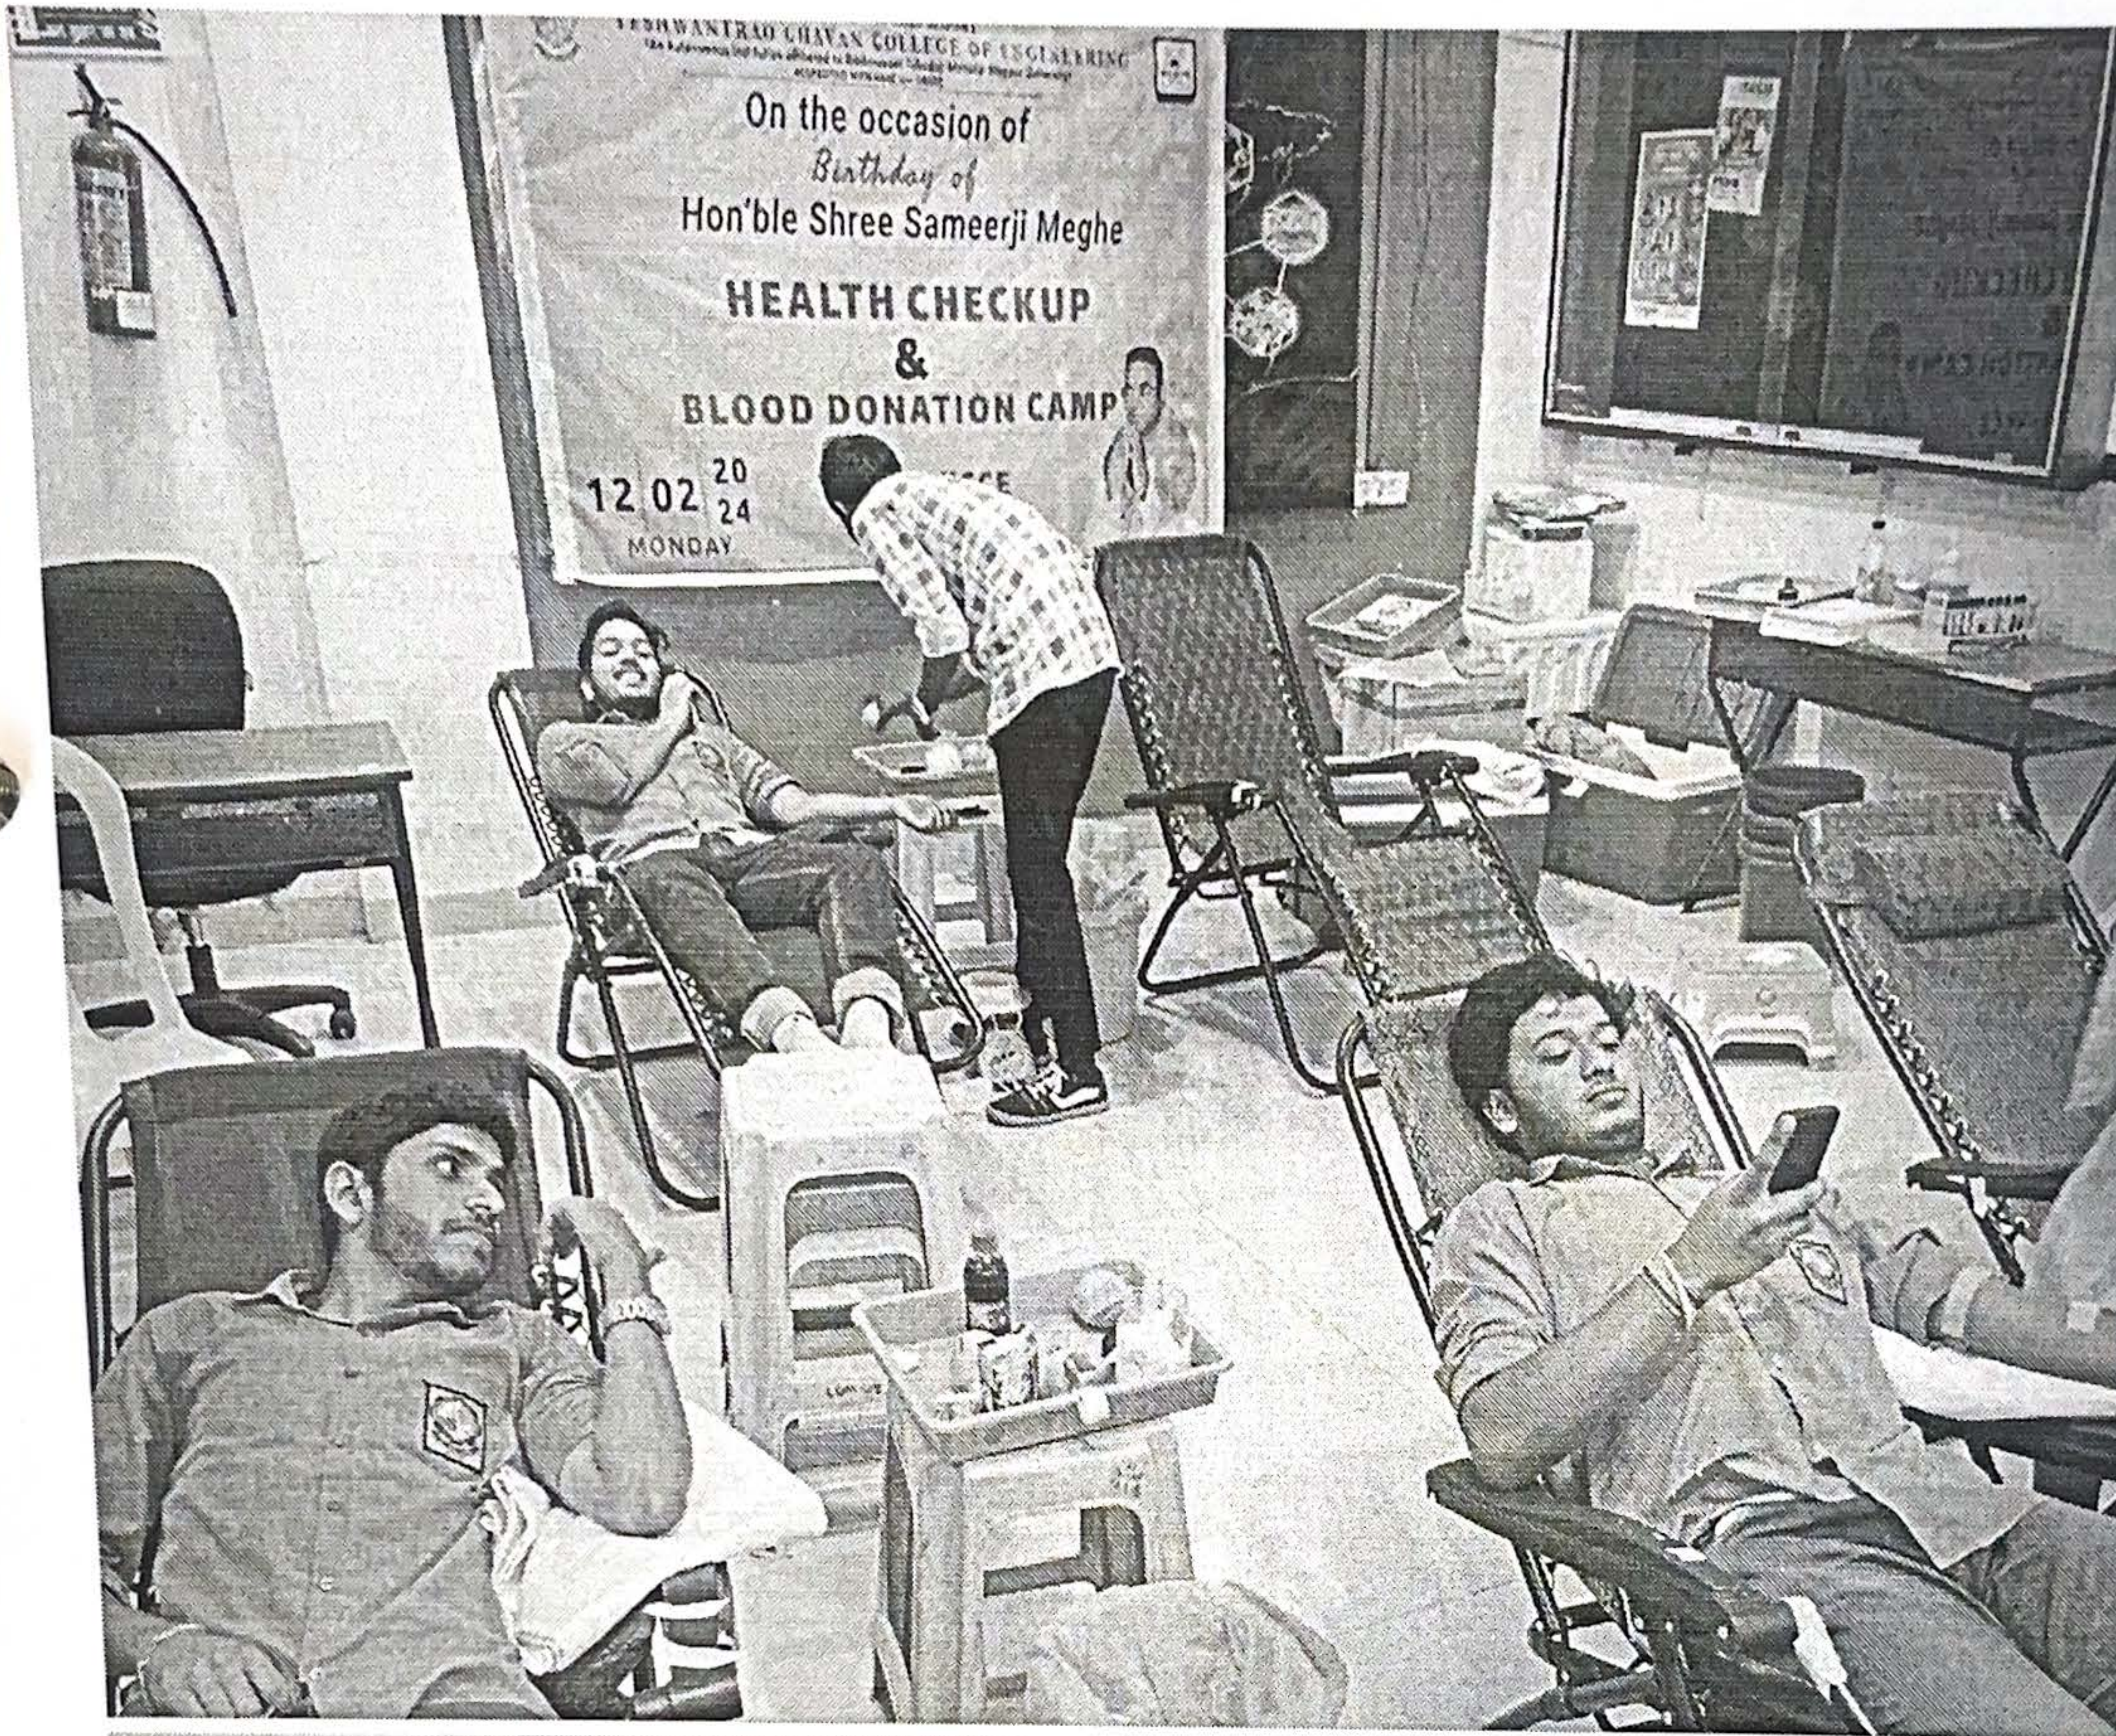

NSS YCCE

Detailed Report:

To celebrate the birthday of Honorable Shri Sameerji Meghe, the NSS unit of YCCE organized a health checkup and blood donation camp at Yeshwantrao Chavan College of Engineering (YCCE). The main goal was to teach everyone about staying healthy and to encourage people to donate blood. Students and teachers could get different health tests at the health checkup camp like checking blood pressure and sugar levels. Doctors were there to talk about how to stay healthy. Many people came to give blood at the blood donation camp, guided by NSS volunteers. Even Dr. A. P. Munshi, Dean of Student Activities, joined in for a health checkup. The event showed how we can all come together to help others and take care of our community, just like Sameerji Meghe taught us. Many students and teachers participated, making the blood donation camp a big success. Everyone followed safety rules, and donors got snacks and drinks afterward. It was a day of giving back and showing kindness to others. In addition to promoting health and blood donation, the event helped us remember Sameerji Meghe's good deeds. Through events like these, NSS YCCE is making our college a caring and supportive place for everyone. It's important to help each other and be kind, just like Sameerji Meghe showed us.

Sarveshwar Annadanam

Food Donation drive organized at YCCE

- The YCCE Rotaract members kicked off their event by cooking "Aalu Bhaat" for underprivileged communities, showcasing camaraderie and dedication. They prepared 200 packets of self-cooked meals, loaded them onto vehicles, and distributed them to deserving areas within the city, embodying collective effort and compassion.

Hunger is one, if not the most rampant problem in the our world. Ever-growing as this problem is, there is little to none effort by the common public to help the needy in any substantial manner. It was difficult not to notice this plaguing issue.

- "Sarveshwar Annadanam" impacted multiple localities, including Cotton Market, Sai Mandir, and Medical Square, evoking profound gratitude from recipients and reinforcing fulfillment among Rotaract members.

- The Rotaract Club of YCCE's "Sarveshwar Annadanam" showcased collective action and unity, leaving a positive impact and inspiring future philanthropy. It aims to spur other clubs to join the fight against hunger globally.
