Nagar Yuvak Shikshan Sanstha's
Yeshwantrao Chavan College of Engineering

Conduct and Discipline by the Students

Introduction

- Every student is required to observe discipline and decorous behavior both inside and outside the campus and not to indulge in any activity, which will tend to bring down the prestige of the Institution.
- The following additional acts of omission and/or commission by the students within or outside the precincts of the College shall constitute gross violation of 'code of conduct' and will be punishable.
- A student admitted to the UG/PG programme shall abide by the "Rules and Regulations" issued by the Institution from time to time. These standing orders shall deal with the discipline of the students in the Hostels, Departments, inside and outside of the Institution premises. The standing orders may also deal with such other matters as are considered necessary for the general conduct of the students, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.
- Students should be aware that any rule imposed by the institution, University and Government is binding on him/her.

Identification Documents

- Every Student admitted will be issued a photo identification card which must be retained by the student while he or she is registered at institution. The ID card will remain as the property of Institution. The student must possess the valid ID card while in the institution.
- The valid ID card must be presented for identification purposes as and when demanded by authorities. Any student refusing to provide the ID card shall be subjected to disciplinary action.
- Any student who alters or intentionally mutilates an ID card or who uses the ID cards of another student or allows his ID card to be used by another will be subjected to disciplinary action.

General Conduct within campus

- Students are required to move silently through the corridors without disturbing the nearby classes and laboratories.
- Nobody should sit on the corridor walls or steps of the buildings.
